1990

Shelter residents ask for and receive an Adult Learner Program. The Chapel is converted to a classroom and the bookkeeper's office becomes the library.

1997

Project Hope forms a collaborative to connect families to jobs that pay a living wage. The Transition to Work collaborative rents office space nearby.

2001

Housing Support Services, initially limited to shelter families, expands to prevent neighbors from becoming homeless.

1985

Sister Margaret Leonard becomes the Executive Director of Project Hope. Staff grows to 10 employees. Sisters move to house next door.

1991

Project Hope builds 8 units of affordable housing on the vacant lot across from the Shelter. Grass and tulips replace weeds and trash.

1998

Family Child Care Business Enterprise program is launched to train women to start home-based child care businesses and become part of our provider network.

2004

Project Hope's first official business partnership opens. Partners in Career & Workforce Development trains candidates for entry level jobs with career ladders.

1992

The children's playroom becomes a neighborhood Children's Center. (To date, 300 poster handprints have been painted and admired!)

2000

One Family Scholars, co-founded by Project Hope and Wellspring House, provides higher education for 14 formerly homeless women. (Currently, 125 women are enrolled at 5 sites.)

2006

Construction on Project Hope's state of the art, earth friendly, four story community building comes to a close, amidst applause from neighbors, clients and staff!

where families move up

Project Hope works in partnership with families so they can move up and out of poverty. We do this by: being a catalyst for change in the lives of families and in the systems that keep them poor; developing and providing family support solutions for homelessness and poverty; advocating for just public policies which strengthen families. We do this in collaboration with a multitude of organizations which support these goals.

and out of poverty

CELEBRATING TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF OPENING DOORS FOR FAMILIES IN NEED

PROJECT HOPE

where families move up and out of poverty

Summary of Operations and Change in Net Assets for Year Ending June 30, 2006

We are extremely grateful for the generous support of the following individuals, foundations, trusts and corporations that made contributions of $500 or more from July 1, 2005 through June 30, 2006.

We are grateful for the time and talent donated by hundreds of dedicated volunteers. They, along with our in-kind donors, enable us to fulfill our mission of partnering with families as they move up and out of poverty. A few of our friends are listed below. We thank all of you for your generous support for our work.
